

& Stratton Business College and the Baltimore Law School.

June 1st, 1908, Mr. Ogle came to the Clerk's office of the Court of Appeals as stenographer to the late C. C. Magruder. Later, he became a deputy clerk, and in 1928 was named Secretary to the Court. In November, 1942, when under the constitutional amendment the Court was empowered to name its Clerk, it chose Ogle for the position.

In 1910, Mr. Ogle married the late Amy M. Werntz of Annapolis, and has two sons, Robert Wertnz Ogle, attorney, and Staff Sergeant Maurice Chapman Ogle, who enlisted in the Marine Corps, February 9th, 1942.

DEPARTMENT OF MILITIA

The Adjutant General: MILTON A. RECKORD (Democrat), Harford County. On Military leave, Federal service.

Major General Milton A. Reckord, the twenty-second Adjutant General of Maryland, was born in Harford County, December 28th, 1879. He is the son of the late John H. and Lydia A. Reckord.

General Reckord's connection with the Maryland National Guard dates from February 15th, 1901, when he enlisted as a private in Company D, 1st Infantry. He served as an enlisted man until December 28th, 1904, when he was commissioned Captain of that company.

On February 3, 1941, General Reckord was ordered to active duty in command of the Twenty-Ninth Division, National Guard. He was transferred from command of the Twenty-Ninth Division, U.S.A., to command of the Third Corps Area, later the Third Service Command, on January 6, 1942.

The Adjutant General: FRANCIS PETROTT (Democrat), Frederick, Md.

Francis Petrott, born in New York City, New York, April 6, 1896. He is married and has one child, a daughter. His preliminary education was obtained in private and public schools of New York and Connecticut. In 1914 he moved his residence to Washington, where he entered Georgetown University and continued his studies until April 6, 1917, on which date war was declared. He enlisted in the Air Service and was ordered to the School of Aeronautics, Princeton University, from which he graduated, and served in the armed forces until 1921. Only recently resigned his commission in the Officers' Reserve Corps.